

Presidential Want Ad

Standards Addressed

SSCG12 The student will analyze the various roles played by the President of the United States; include Commander in Chief of the Armed forces, chief executive, chief agenda setter, representative of the nation, chief of state, foreign policy leader, and party leader.

SSCG13 Student will describe the qualifications for becoming President of the United States.

Task: Using a copy of the United States Constitution, create a job description for the role of the President as if you were going to post it on Monster.com. Your description should be thorough and detailed in such a way that a person who is interested in the job would know exactly what the duties and responsibilities of the position are. All of the titles listed above must be included in the posting. Your want ad will be graded based on the inclusion of the following information:

1. Basic Job Titles and powers that are associated with that title

-  Chief Executive
-  Head of State
-  Chief Legislator
-  Party Leader
-  Chief Diplomat
-  Commander in Chief
-  Economic Planner

2. Term of Office

3. Qualifications

-  Requirements that are listed in the US Constitution (Article II)
-  Trends from the past that have been implied but that are not written out in the Constitution
-  Personal characteristics that you believe to be a requirement for the job

4. Accountability

-  Explain how the President will have to work with the other branches of government and how these other branches can impact his/her work
-  Explain the concept of impeachment and removal from office as a consequence of misconduct
